

Ramadan Calendar 2020

"Our faith constantly reminds us to observe and be thankful for the beauty of the world and the universe around us, and our responsibility and obligation, as good stewards of God's creation, to leave the world in a better condition than we found it."
— Mawlana Hazar Imam, Ottawa, Canada 2013

DAY 1

Find out 3 things that make Ramadan a special time for Muslims

DAY 2

With your family, think about how you will make Ramadan special this year

DAY 3

Make a poster about you and your family. Show the things that are important in your lives

DAY 4

Become a 'Peacemaker' - create a message about 'Love and Hope'; place it on your window for others to see

DAY 5

Allah gives life and helps us to grow and learn - learn something new today

DAY 6

Draw a helpful reminder to recycle at home and put it up on a wall

DAY 7

Become an 'Unplug Monitor' - ask the adults at home to unplug devices that are not being used

DAY 8

After prayers, read a story about Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) with your family and talk about it
e.g. Ta'lim Primary 1 Book 3 P14-16

DAY 9

With your family, collect some of your toys and clothes to donate to charity

DAY 10

Write a beautiful message for your family and stick it on the door of the fridge

DAY 11

Write down 2 things you would like to be better at and how you will improve on these

DAY 12

Be grateful - write a thank you note to someone. You could leave a note for the person who delivers your post

DAY 13

Draw a helpful reminder to switch off the lights everytime you leave a room and put it up on a wall

DAY 14

Become someone who remembers - call someone that you haven't talked to in a long time

DAY 15

Say Bismillah before you start each task and carry Allah in your heart

DAY 16

Become a helper - help with the chores around the house or tidy up a space

DAY 17

Make a chatter box with tips to save the planet and play it with your family

DAY 18

All human beings are part of Allah's creation; we are all one family - offer to help someone today
